FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

How do I get sponsors and/or ads? The best place to begin is where you and your family does business. Examples are, Insurance Companies, Banks, church, Doctors, Dentists, local stores, etc. Call ahead to make an appointment. Your dress attire is very important, make sure and dress neatly when you visit them. Make sure and take the program book and the program book opportunity letter you were given with your packet when you applied for the pageant. Please do not forget to present this material as it validates the pageant. Remember, the Miss Pueblo Pageant has been in operation for 21 years. Visiting potential sponsors is good practice for your interview. Most sponsors will want to ask you questions about the pageant.

What is the sponsor fee and sale of ads? The total fee is $450.00. The sponsor fee is $150.00. This will allow your sponsor recognition on the sponsor page under your name. The total ad fee is $300.00 this allows the participant, whether a business or a salute page, to place an ad in the program book. A business card size is $40.00, One quarter page is $50.00, One-half page is $75.00 and a full page is $125.00. The sponsor and ad fee pay for the cost of producing the pageant, which consists of insurance, awards such as crowns and sashes, choreographers, facility of pageant, emcees, lighting, sound, staging, judge's expenses, staff, florists, printed materials and program books, scholarships, office support and all of the many other things that go together to make our program stand heads above all the others. Businesses, family, friends, or fundraising activities are all great ideas for raising your financial commitment to participate in the pageant. Without exception, sponsor fees are non-refundable.

Do I have to raise my sponsor and ad fee, or can we just pay it? It is up to you. You can either raise your sponsor and advertisement fee, or you can just pay it. Whichever works best for you and your family. Remember that the total sponsor/ad fee is $450.00.
